

Installed Building Products Awarded With “National Preferred Partner” Distinction

September 8, 2021

COLUMBUS, Ohio--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 8, 2021-- Installed Building Products, Inc. (the “Company” or “IBP”) (NYSE: IBP) earned the National Preferred Partner Award from David Weekley Homes’ 17th annual National Preferred Partner Survey. The award recognizes field and manufacturing partners that have consistently operated at world-class levels, as determined by the home builder’s supplier evaluation platform. Installed Building Products is honored in the field partner category. The comprehensive process evaluates companies in the areas of quality and customer service.

“Exceptional customer service is a pillar of our entire team and we are honored to have this national recognition,” said Jeff Hire, President of External Affairs at IBP. “We pride ourselves on our commitment to delivering high quality products and services and this distinction highlights the strength and resilience of our team and partners.”

Installed Building Products was one of 140 companies evaluated by David Weekley Homes and just 18% achieved the distinction of National Preferred Partner. The award is part of the homebuilder’s comprehensive supplier evaluation platform measuring all trade partners and their channel partners for world-class excellence.

“Congratulations to IBP for being named a National Preferred Partner of David Weekley Homes,” said John Schiegg, Vice President of Supply Chain Services for David Weekley Homes. “Their attention to detail and unparalleled professionalism make them a valuable asset to our team.”
